

Subject index

- abortion, A defence of the potential future of value theory, 198
 A future like ours revisited, 192
 Abortion and the value of the future. A reply to: a defence of the potential future of value theory, 202
 Abortion, embryo destruction and the future of value argument, 133
 Thomson, the right to life, and partial birth abortion or two MULES for Sister Sarah, 99
 Two challenges to the double effect doctrine: euthanasia and abortion, 102
- acute myocardial infarction, Premature stopping and informed consent in AMI trials, 188
- acute psychiatry, Everyday ethics in an acute psychiatric unit, 173
- adoption, Disparities in parenting criteria: an exploration of the issues, focusing on adoption and embryo donation, 139
- advance directives, Clinical issues on consent: some philosophical concerns, 377
 The ethics of surgery in the elderly demented patient with bowel obstruction, 105
 The validity of contracts to dispose of frozen embryos, 295
- advocacy, Is there an advocate in the house? The role of health care professionals in patient advocacy, 37
- altruism, Are doctors altruistic?, 68
 Commentary on Glannon and Ross, and McKay, 74
 Supererogation and altruism: a comment, 75
- amicus curiae, The role of the church in developing the law: response to commentators, 229
 Commentary on Skene and Parker: the role of the church in developing the law, 224
 Religious meddling: a comment on Skene and Parker, 221
 The role of the church in developing the law: an Islamic response, 223
 The role of the church in developing the law, 215
- AMI trials, Informed consent doesn't exist in AMI trials, 190
- AMI, Premature stopping and informed consent in AMI trials, 188
- analogy, Analogy in moral deliberation: the role of imagination and theory in ethics, 244
- antibiotic prophylaxis, The ethics of prophylactic antibiotics for neurosurgical procedures, 358
- artificial insemination, Are attempts to have impaired children justifiable?, 286
- artificial insemination by donor, Sperm donor suffers years later from inherited disease, 213
- assisted reproduction, Reproductive tourism as moral pluralism in motion, 337
- assisted suicide, Mrs Pretty and Ms B, 211
 Ms B and Diane Pretty: a commentary, 234
 The case of Ms B: suicide's slippery slope?, 238
- autonomy, The validity of contracts to dispose of frozen embryos, 295
- behaviour, Actions, causes, and psychiatry: a reply to Szasz, 120
- beneficence, Are doctors altruistic?, 68
 Commentary on Glannon and Ross, and McKay, 74
 Supererogation and altruism: a comment, 75
 Supererogation and the profession of medicine, 70
- best interests, Better to hesitate at the threshold of compulsion: PKU testing and the concept of family autonomy in Eire, 136
 Clinical issues on consent: some philosophical concerns, 377
- bioethical discourse, Arguments at cross-purposes: moral epistemology and medical ethics, 28
- bioethics, A study on the ethics of microallocation of scarce resources in health care, 266
- biomedical model, Reflections on a new medical cosmology, 81
- biotechnology, Deafness, culture, and choice, 284
- bodily rights, Thomson, the right to life, and partial birth abortion or two MULES for Sister Sarah, 99
- cancer, Should cancer patients be informed about their diagnosis and prognosis? Future doctors and lawyers differ, 258
- cancer patients, Should cancer patients be informed about their diagnosis and prognosis? Future doctors and lawyers differ, 258
- cardiopulmonary resuscitation, Increasing use of DNR orders in the elderly worldwide: whose choice is it?, 303
- catholic teaching, Commentary on Skene and Parker: the role of the church in developing the law, 224
- cause, Reply to Brassington, 124
- causes and reasons, Actions, causes, and psychiatry: a reply to Szasz, 120
- children's rights, Deafness, culture, and choice, 284
- circumcision, Prophylactic interventions on children: balancing human rights with public health, 10
- civil litigation, The role of the church in developing the law, 215
 The role of the church in developing the law: response to commentators, 229
- civil war, Operation Lifeline Sudan, 49
- clinical ethics, Hospital ethics committees in Israel: structure, function and heterogeneity in the setting of statutory ethics committees, 177
- clinical trials, Consent to open label extension studies: some ethical issues, 373
 Medical research in clinical emergency settings in Europe, 183
 Patients' perceptions of information provided in clinical trials, 45
 The ethics of prophylactic antibiotics for neurosurgical procedures, 358
- cloning, Embryonic stem cell production through therapeutic cloning has fewer ethical problems than stem cell harvest from surplus IVF embryos, 86
- codes of ethics, Undignifying institutions, 368
- codes of practice, Ethical considerations for services offering one-to-one guidance for primary care practitioners interested in research, 33
- coercion, The hexamethonium asthma study and the death of a normal volunteer in research, 3
- coherence, Depression and competence to refuse psychiatric treatment, 151
- communication, Conditions and consequences of medical futility—from a literature review to a clinical model, 115
- competence, Depression and competence to refuse psychiatric treatment, 151
- concepts, Consent, sectionalisation and the concept of a medical procedure, 249
- conceptual analysis, Conditions and consequences of medical futility—from a literature review to a clinical model, 115
- confidentiality, Ethical implications of consent and confidentiality, 207
- conflict of interests, Rationing, randomising, and researching in health care provision, 20
- consent, Consent, sectionalisation and the concept of a medical procedure, 249
 Consent to open label extension studies: some ethical issues, 373
 Depression and competence to refuse psychiatric treatment, 151
 Is posthumous semen retrieval ethically permissible?, 299
 Rationing, randomising, and researching in health care provision, 20
- consciousness, Present self-represented futures of value are a reason for the wrongness of killing, 196
- constitutional and human rights, Better to hesitate at the threshold of compulsion: PKU testing and the concept of family autonomy in Eire, 136
- corporate and clinical autonomy, Rationing of expensive medical care in a transition country—nihil novum?, 308
- criminalisation, The criminalisation of HIV transmission, 160
- critical medicine, Grasping the nettle—what to do when patients withdraw their consent for treatment: (a clinical perspective on the case of Ms B), 236
- cultural awareness, A checklist to facilitate cultural awareness and sensitivity, 143
- cultural diversity, A checklist to facilitate cultural awareness and sensitivity, 143
- cultural sensitivity, A checklist to facilitate cultural awareness and sensitivity, 143
- culture, A checklist to facilitate cultural awareness and sensitivity, 143
 Are attempts to have impaired children justifiable?, 286
 Deafness, culture, and choice, 284
 Lesbian couple create a child who is deaf like them, 283
- deafness, Are attempts to have impaired children justifiable?, 286
 Deafness, culture, and choice, 284
 Lesbian couple create a child who is deaf like them, 283
- death and dying, Death, dying and donation: organ transplantation and the diagnosis of death, 89
- death, Death with dignity, 255
- deception, The ethical problem of false positives: a prospective evaluation of physician reporting in the medical record, 291
- decision making, Conditions and consequences of medical futility—from a literature review to a clinical model, 115
- dementia, Dementia in prison: ethical and legal implications, 156
 The ethics of surgery in the elderly demented patient with bowel obstruction, 105
- democracy, Democracy, embryonic stem cell research, and the Roman Catholic church, 228
- depression, Depression and competence to refuse psychiatric treatment, 151

- diagnosis of death Death, dying and donation: organ transplant and the diagnosis of death, 89
- dignity, Death with dignity, 255
Undignifying institutions, 368
- disability, A disability perspective from the United States on the case of Ms B, 240
Are attempts to have impaired children justifiable?, 286
Lesbian couple create a child who is deaf like them, 283
One principle and a fourth fallacy of disability studies, 204
One principle and three fallacies of disability studies, 203
The Perruche judgment and the "right not to be born", 63
- distrust, Is there a moral duty for doctors to trust patients?, 77
- doctor-patient relationship, Are doctors altruistic?, 68
Is there a moral duty for doctors to trust patients?, 77
- doctrine, The role of the church in developing the law: response to commentators, 229
The role of the church in developing the law, 215
- do-not-resuscitate (DNR) orders, Increasing use of DNR orders in the elderly worldwide: whose choice is it?, 303
Evaluation of do not resuscitate orders (DNR) in a Swiss community hospital, 364
- double effect doctrine, Two challenges to the double effect doctrine: euthanasia and abortion, 102
Neuromuscular blockers—a means of palliation?, 170
Response to Kuhse, 273
Response to Ronald M Perkin and David B Resnik: The agony of trying to match sanctity of life and patient-centred medical care, 270
The agony of agonal respiration: is the last gasp necessary?, 164
- down's syndrome, The Perruche judgment and the "right not to be born", 63
- duty to warn, The criminalisation of HIV transmission, 160
- duty, Are doctors altruistic?, 68
- early-onset Alzheimer disease, Genetically selected baby free of inherited predisposition to early-onset Alzheimer's disease, 290
- educational guidance, Ethical considerations for services offering one-to-one guidance for primary care practitioners interested in research, 33
- elderly, Increasing use of DNR orders in the elderly worldwide: whose choice is it?, 303
- elderly care institutions, Undignifying institutions, 368
- embryo destruction, Abortion, embryo destruction and the future of value argument, 133
- embryo disposition, The validity of contracts to dispose of frozen embryos, 295
- embryo donation, Disparities in parenting criteria: an exploration of the issues, focusing on adoption and embryo donation, 139
- embryo selection, "Saviour siblings", 289
- embryo status, Embryonic stem cell production through therapeutic cloning has fewer ethical problems than stem cell harvest from surplus IVF embryos, 86
- embryonic stem cell research, Democracy, embryonic stem cell research, and the Roman Catholic church, 228
- emergency trial, Premature stopping and informed consent in AMI trials, 188
- emergency, Medical research in clinical emergency settings in Europe, 183
- end of life care, Neuromuscular blockers—a means of palliation?, 170
Response to Kuhse, 273
Response to Ronald M Perkin and David B Resnik: The agony of trying to match sanctity of life and patient-centred medical care, 270
The agony of agonal respiration: is the last gasp necessary?, 164
- end of life decisions, A disability perspective from the United States on the case of Ms B, 240
Comment on Re B (Adult: Refusal of Medical Treatment) [2002] 2 All England Reports 449, 232
Factors affecting physicians' decisions to forgo life-sustaining treatments in terminal care, 109
Grasping the nettle—what to do when patients withdraw their consent for treatment: (a clinical perspective on the case of Ms B), 236
Mrs Pretty and Ms B, 211
Ms B and Diane Pretty: a commentary, 234
The case of Ms B and the "right to die", 243
The case of Ms B: suicide's slippery slope?, 238
- enforcing obligation, The criminalisation of HIV transmission, 160
- equality, One principle and a fourth fallacy of disability studies, 204
One principle and three fallacies of disability studies, 203
- equipose, Rationing, randomising, and researching in health care provision, 20
Who is my brother's keeper?, 24
- equity, Rationing of expensive medical care in a transition country—nihil novum?, 308
Tobacco, taxation, and fairness, 381
- ethical intervention, Evaluation of do not resuscitate orders (DNR) in a Swiss community hospital, 364
- ethics, Death with dignity, 255
Everyday ethics in an acute psychiatric unit, 173
Factors affecting physicians' decisions to forgo life-sustaining treatments in terminal care, 109
Palliative care research: trading ethics for an evidence base, 342
Prophylactic interventions on children: balancing human rights with public health, 10
The ethics of surgery in the elderly demented patient with bowel obstruction, 105
- ethics briefings, Ethics briefings, 53, 127, 205, 275, 327, 384
- ethics committees, Hospital ethics committees in Israel: structure, function and heterogeneity in the setting of statutory ethics committees, 177
- Europe, Reproductive tourism as moral pluralism in motion, 337
- euthanasia, Death with dignity, 255
Two challenges to the double effect doctrine: euthanasia and abortion, 102
Withholding life prolonging treatment, and self deception, 347
- evidence based medicine, Palliative care research: trading ethics for an evidence base, 342
- explicit rationing, Rationing of expensive medical care in a transition country—nihil novum?, 308
- fairness, Tobacco, taxation, and fairness, 381
- family assisted suicide, Attitudes to physician and family assisted suicide: results from a study of public attitudes in Britain, 52
- feticide, Thomson, the right to life, and partial birth abortion or two MULES for Sister Sarah, 99
- fetus, Present self-represented futures of value are a reason for the wrongness of killing, 196
- forensic psychiatry, Preventive detention must be resisted by the medical profession, 95
- France, The cultural specificity of research ethics—or why ethical debate in France is different, 147
- fraud, Bad behaviour does not equal research fraud, 207
- freedom of choice, Reply to Brassington, 124
- frozen embryos, The validity of contracts to dispose of frozen embryos, 295
- futility, Conditions and consequences of medical futility—from a literature review to a clinical model, 115
- future like ours, A future like ours revisited, 192
Abortion and the value of the future. A reply to: a defence of the potential future of value theory, 202
- future of value, A defence of the potential future of value theory, 198
- future of value argument, Abortion, embryo destruction and the future of value argument, 133
- genetic disease, Can sex selection be ethically tolerated?, 335
Genetically selected baby free of inherited predisposition to early-onset Alzheimer's disease, 290
"Saviour siblings", 289
- handicap, One principle and a fourth fallacy of disability studies, 204
One principle and three fallacies of disability studies, 203
- harm, The hexamethonium asthma study and the death of a normal volunteer in research, 3
Two deaths and two lessons: Is it time to review the structure and function of research ethics committees?, 1
- harmed condition conception of disability, One principle and a fourth fallacy of disability studies, 204
One principle and three fallacies of disability studies, 203
- health care rationing, A study on the ethics of microallocation of scarce resources in health care, 266
- health services research, Why we should not seek individual informed consent for participation in health services research, 313
- health technology assessment, Rationing, randomising, and researching in health care provision, 20
- health, On the theory of individual health, 17
- Helsinki 2000, Who is my brother's keeper?, 24
- hierarchies, Consent, sectionalisation and the concept of a medical procedure, 249
- Hippocratic oath, White coat ceremonies: a second opinion, 5
- HIV, The criminalisation of HIV transmission, 160
- human emergence, Embryonic stem cell production through therapeutic cloning has fewer ethical problems than stem cell harvest from surplus IVF embryos, 86
- human rights, Dementia in prison: ethical and legal implications, 156
- Humanitarian aid, Operation Lifeline Sudan, 49
- imagination, Analogy in moral deliberation: the role of imagination and theory in ethics, 244
- immunisations, Prophylactic interventions on children: balancing human rights with public health, 10
- impairment, One principle and a fourth fallacy of disability studies, 204
One principle and three fallacies of disability studies, 203
- implicit rationing, Rationing of expensive medical care in a transition country—nihil novum?, 308
- in vitro fertilisation, Genetically selected baby free of inherited predisposition to early-onset Alzheimer's disease, 290

- individual, On the theory of individual health, 17
- infant, Present self-represented futures of value are a reason for the wrongness of killing, 196
- infection, The ethics of prophylactic antibiotics for neurosurgical procedures, 358
- infectious disease, The criminalisation of HIV transmission, 160
- information disclosure, Consent, sectionalisation and the concept of a medical procedure, 249
- informed consent, A disability perspective from the United States on the case of Ms B, 240
Clinical issues on consent: some philosophical concerns, 377
Comment on Re B (Adult: Refusal of Medical Treatment) [2002] 2 All England Reports 449, 232
Ethical implications of consent and confidentiality, 207
Informed consent doesn't exist in AMI trials, 190
Informed consent of the minor. Implications of present day Spanish law, 326
It doesn't cost anything just to ask, does it? The ethics of questionnaire-based research, 41
Medical research in clinical emergency settings in Europe, 183
Premature stopping and informed consent in AMI trials, 188
Prophylactic interventions on children: balancing human rights with public health, 10
The case of Ms B and the "right to die", 243
Who is my brother's keeper?, 24
Why we should not seek individual informed consent for participation in health services research, 313
- institutional ethics, A study on the ethics of microallocation of scarce resources in health care, 266
- interests, The ethics of surgery in the elderly demented patient with bowel obstruction, 105
- interim analysis, Premature stopping and informed consent in AMI trials, 188
- intracerebral grafting of fetal tissue, Sham surgery controls: intracerebral grafting of fetal tissue for Parkinson's disease and proposed criteria for use of sham surgery controls, 322
- Islam, The role of the church in developing the law: an Islamic response, 223
- IVF, "Saviour siblings", 289
- justice, Rationing, randomising, and researching in health care provision, 20
Tobacco, taxation, and fairness, 381
- late onset disorders, Genetically selected baby free of inherited predisposition to early-onset Alzheimer's disease, 290
- law, Commentary on Skene and Parker: the role of a church (or other ideologically based interest group) in developing the law—a plea for ethereal intervention, 219
Democracy, embryonic stem cell research, and the Roman Catholic church, 228
Informed consent of the minor. Implications of present day Spanish law, 326
Religious meddling: a comment on Skene and Parker, 221
- law and consent, Clinical issues on consent: some philosophical concerns, 377
- law and medical ethics, A disability perspective from the United States on the case of Ms B, 240
Comment on Re B (Adult: Refusal of Medical Treatment) [2002] 2 All England Reports 449, 232
Grasping the nettle—what to do when patients withdraw their consent for treatment: (a clinical perspective on the case of Ms B), 236
Mrs Pretty and Ms B, 211
Ms B and Diane Pretty: a commentary, 234
The case of Ms B and the "right to die", 243
The case of Ms B: suicide's slippery slope?, 238
The Perruche judgment and the "right not to be born", 63
The Perruche judgment and the "right not to be born", 63
- legal argument, Commentary on Skene and Parker: the role of the church in developing the law, 224
The role of the church in developing the law: response to commentators, 229
The role of the church in developing the law, 215
- legal medicine, Informed consent of the minor. Implications of present day Spanish law, 326
- legal principle, Commentary on Skene and Parker: the role of the church in developing the law, 224
- legislation, Reproductive tourism as moral pluralism in motion, 337
- legislation and jurisprudence, Preventive detention must be resisted by the medical profession, 95
- legislature, Commentary on Skene and Parker: the role of the church in developing the law, 224
- legitimacy, Medical authority and nursing integrity, 353
- mastectomy, Prophylactic interventions on children: balancing human rights with public health, 10
- medical aims, Supererogation and altruism: a comment, 75
- medical anthropology, On the theory of individual health, 17
- Medical authority, Medical authority and nursing integrity, 353
- medical cosmology, Reflections on a new medical cosmology, 81
- medical education, Medical commitments ceremonies, 329
Should cancer patients be informed about their diagnosis and prognosis? Future doctors and lawyers differ, 258
White coat ceremonies: a second opinion, 5
- medical ethics, amicus curiae Commentary on Skene and Parker: the role of a church (or other ideologically based interest group) in developing the law—a plea for ethereal intervention, 219
Arguments at cross-purposes: moral epistemology and medical ethics, 28
Religious meddling: a comment on Skene and Parker, 221
The role of the church in developing the law: an Islamic response, 223
- medical ethics and the law, Clinical issues on consent: some philosophical concerns, 377
Should cancer patients be informed about their diagnosis and prognosis? Future doctors and lawyers differ, 258
- medical futility, Factors affecting physicians' decisions to forgo life-sustaining treatments in terminal care, 109
- medical paternalism, Grasping the nettle—what to do when patients withdraw their consent for treatment: (a clinical perspective on the case of Ms B), 236
- medical procedure, Consent, sectionalisation and the concept of a medical procedure, 249
- medical profession, White coat ceremonies: a second opinion, 5
- medical records, The ethical problem of false positives: a prospective evaluation of physician reporting in the medical record, 291
- medical students, Medical commitments ceremonies, 329
White coat ceremonies: a second opinion, 5
- medical technology, Rationing of expensive medical care in a transition country—nihil novum?, 308
- medically assisted procreation, Can sex selection be ethically tolerated?, 335
- mental competence, Evaluation of do not resuscitate orders (DNR) in a Swiss community hospital, 364
- mental disorders, Everyday ethics in an acute psychiatric unit, 173
- mental illness, Reply to Brassington, 124
- methodology, Arguments at cross-purposes: moral epistemology and medical ethics, 28
- mind, Reply to Brassington, 124
- minors, Informed consent of the minor. Implications of present day Spanish law, 326
- Moral epistemology, Arguments at cross-purposes: moral epistemology and medical ethics, 28
- moral foundations of law, Commentary on Skene and Parker: the role of the church in developing the law, 224
The role of the Church in developing the law: an Islamic response, 223
- moral pluralism, Reproductive tourism as moral pluralism in motion, 337
- neonatal testing, Better to hesitate at the threshold of compulsion: PKU testing and the concept of family autonomy in Eire, 136
- neurosurgery, The ethics of prophylactic antibiotics for neurosurgical procedures, 358
- non-treatment, The ethics of surgery in the elderly demented patient with bowel obstruction, 105
- nursing, Medical authority and nursing integrity, 353
- Obituary, Dorothy Mitchell Smith (1944–2001), 9
- obligation, Supererogation and the profession of medicine, 70
- old age, The ethics of surgery in the elderly demented patient with bowel obstruction, 105
- omissions/acts distinction, Mrs Pretty and Ms B, 211
- open label extension studies, Consent to open label extension studies: some ethical issues, 373
- Operation Lifeline Sudan, Operation Lifeline Sudan, 49
- organ donation, Death, dying and donation: organ transplantation and the diagnosis of death, 89
- paediatric cardiac surgery, Beyond Bristol: taking responsibility, 281
- palliative care, Death with dignity, 255
Neuromuscular blockers—a means of palliation?, 170
Response to Kuhse, 273
Response to Ronald M Perkin and David B Resnik: The agony of trying to match sanctity of life and patient-centred medical care, 270
The agony of agonal respiration: is the last gasp necessary?, 164
- Palliative care research, Palliative care research: trading ethics for an evidence base, 342
- paradigm, Reflections on a new medical cosmology, 81
- parental authority, Deafness, culture, and choice, 284
- parental autonomy, Better to hesitate at the threshold of compulsion: PKU testing and the concept of family autonomy in Eire, 136
- parenting criteria, Disparities in parenting criteria: an exploration of the issues, focusing on adoption and embryo donation, 139
- parents, Are attempts to have impaired children justifiable?, 286
Disparities in parenting criteria: an exploration of the issues, focusing on adoption and embryo donation, 139
- Parkinson's disease, Sham surgery controls: intracerebral grafting of fetal tissue for Parkinson's disease and proposed criteria for use of sham surgery controls, 322

- particularism, Analogy in moral deliberation: the role of imagination and theory in ethics, 244
- paternalism, Is there an advocate in the house? The role of health care professionals in patient advocacy, 37
- patient autonomy, Everyday ethics in an acute psychiatric unit, 173
- patient perceptions, Is there an advocate in the house? The role of health care professionals in patient advocacy, 37
- patient simulation, The ethical problem of false positives: a prospective evaluation of physician reporting in the medical record, 291
- patient–doctor relationship, Commentary on Glannon and Ross, and McKay, 74
- patients, Conditions and consequences of medical futility—from a literature review to a clinical model, 115
- patients' participation, Evaluation of do not resuscitate orders (DNR) in a Swiss community hospital, 364
- patients' perspectives, Patients' perceptions of information provided in clinical trials, 45
- patients' right to know, Should cancer patients be informed about their diagnosis and prognosis? Future doctors and lawyers differ, 258
- Perruche, The Perruche judgment and the "right not to be born", 63
- Personality disorders, Preventive detention must be resisted by the medical profession, 95
- person, Present self-represented futures of value are a reason for the wrongness of killing, 196
- pharmaceutical industry, Comment on: the influence of the pharmaceutical industry on the off-label use of its medicines: letter, 277
The influence of the pharmaceutical industry on the off-label use of its medicines, 277
- philosophy, Arguments at cross-purposes: moral epistemology and medical ethics, 28
- philosophy of medicine, The cultural specificity of research ethics—or why ethical debate in France is different, 147
- physician assisted suicide, Attitudes of Hungarian students and nurses to physician assisted suicide, 126
Attitudes to physician and family assisted suicide: results from a study of public attitudes in Britain, 52
- physicians, Conditions and consequences of medical futility—from a literature review to a clinical model, 115
- placebo, Consent to open label extension studies: some ethical issues, 373
Who is my brother's keeper?, 24
- pluralism, The role of the church in developing the law: response to commentators, 229
The role of the church in developing the law, 215
- posthumous semen retrieval, Is posthumous semen retrieval ethically permissible?, 299
- practical application of philosophy, Undignifying institutions, 368
- preferences, Depression and competence to refuse psychiatric treatment, 151
- preimplantation genetic diagnosis, Can sex selection be ethically tolerated?, 335
Genetically selected baby free of inherited predisposition to early-onset Alzheimer's disease, 290
"Saviour siblings", 289
- primary care, It doesn't cost anything just to ask, does it? The ethics of questionnaire-based research, 41
- primary care practitioners, Ethical considerations for services offering one-to-one guidance for primary care practitioners interested in research, 33
- primary health care, The ethical problem of false positives: a prospective evaluation of physician reporting in the medical record, 291
- prisoners, Dementia in prison: ethical and legal implications, 156
Preventive detention must be resisted by the medical profession, 95
- pro-choice, Abortion and the value of the future. A reply to: a defence of the potential future of value theory, 202
A future like ours revisited, 192
- professional ethics, Abortion and the value of the future. A reply to: a defence of the potential future of value theory. Supererogation and the profession of medicine, 70
- professional integrity, Medical authority and nursing integrity, 353
- professional patient relations, Everyday ethics in an acute psychiatric unit, 173
- professionalism, Are doctors altruistic?, 68
- professions, Supererogation and altruism: a comment, 75
- prophylactic surgery, Prophylactic interventions on children: balancing human rights with public health, 10
- protection of research subjects, The hexamethonium asthma study and the death of a normal volunteer in research, 3
Two deaths and two lessons: Is it time to review the structure and function of research ethics committees?, 1
- psychiatry and mental illness, Actions, causes, and psychiatry: a reply to Szasz, 120
- publication bias, The hexamethonium asthma study and the death of a normal volunteer in research, 3
- Two deaths and two lessons: Is it time to review the structure and function of research ethics committees?, 1
- quality of care, The ethical problem of false positives: a prospective evaluation of physician reporting in the medical record, 291
- questionnaires, It doesn't cost anything just to ask, does it? The ethics of questionnaire-based research, 41
- rationing, Rationing, randomising, and researching in health care provision, 20
- reason, Reply to Brassington, 124
- reasonable standard of care, Beyond Bristol: taking responsibility, 281
- refusal, Depression and competence to refuse psychiatric treatment, 151
- religion, Commentary on Skene and Parker: the role of a church (or other ideologically based interest group) in developing the law—a plea for ethereal intervention, 219
Democracy, embryonic stem cell research, and the Roman Catholic church, 228
Religious meddling: a comment on Skene and Parker, 221
The role of the church in developing the law: an Islamic response, 223
The role of the church in developing the law: response to commentators, 229
The role of the church in developing the law, 215
- Report of the Public Inquiry into Children's Heart Surgery at the Bristol Royal Infirmary 1984–1995, Beyond Bristol: taking responsibility, 281
- representation, Is there an advocate in the house? The role of health care professionals in patient advocacy, 37
- reproductive decision making, The Perruche judgment and the "right not to be born", 63
- reproductive tourism, Reproductive tourism as moral pluralism in motion, 337
- research benefits, Who is my brother's keeper?, 24
- research ethics, Bad behaviour does not equal research fraud, 207
Consent to open label extension studies: some ethical issues, 373
Informed consent doesn't exist in AMI trials, 190
It doesn't cost anything just to ask, does it? The ethics of questionnaire-based research, 41
Medical research in clinical emergency settings in Europe, 183
New governance arrangements for research ethics committees: is facilitating research achieved at the cost of participants' interest, 318
Patients' perceptions of information provided in clinical trials, 45
The cultural specificity of research ethics—or why ethical debate in France is different, 147
Who is my brother's keeper?, 24
- research ethics committees, New governance arrangements for research ethics committees: is facilitating research achieved at the cost of participants' interest, 318
The hexamethonium asthma study and the death of a normal volunteer in research, 3
Two deaths and two lessons: Is it time to review the structure and function of research ethics committees?, 1
- research fraud, Bad behaviour does not equal research fraud, 207
- research misconduct, Bad behaviour does not equal research fraud, 207
- research on human subjects, The cultural specificity of research ethics—or why ethical debate in France is different, 147
- research support, Ethical considerations for services offering one-to-one guidance for primary care practitioners interested in research, 33
- responsibility, Reply to Brassington, 124
- right not to be born, The Perruche judgment and the "right not to be born", 63
The Perruche judgment and the "right not to be born", 63
- right to information, The Perruche judgment and the "right not to be born", 63
- right to life, A defence of the potential future of value theory, 198
Thomson, the right to life, and partial birth abortion or two MULES for Sister Sarah, 99
- rights, A future like ours revisited, 192
Clinical issues on consent: some philosophical concerns, 377
- Roman Catholic church, Democracy, embryonic stem cell research, and the Roman Catholic church, 228
- scientific fraud, Bad behaviour does not equal research fraud, 207
- scientific misconduct, Bad behaviour does not equal research fraud, 207
- selection of patients, A study on the ethics of microallocation of scarce resources in health care, 266
- selection, Are attempts to have impaired children justifiable?, 286
- self deception, Withholding life prolonging treatment, and self deception, 347
- Self represented futures, Present self-represented futures of value are a reason for the wrongness of killing, 196
- sex selection, Can sex selection be ethically tolerated?, 335

- sham surgery controls, Sham surgery controls: intracerebral grafting of fetal tissue for Parkinson's disease and proposed criteria for use of sham surgery controls, 322
- smoking, Tobacco, taxation, and fairness, 381
- social conception of disability, One principle and a fourth fallacy of disability studies, 204
One principle and three fallacies of disability studies, 203
- Spanish law, Informed consent of the minor. Implications of present day Spanish law, 326
- sperm donors, Sperm donor suffers years later from inherited disease, 213
- stem cells, Embryonic stem cell production through therapeutic cloning has fewer ethical problems than stem cell harvest from surplus IVF embryos, 86
- STEPS programme, The influence of the pharmaceutical industry on the off-label use of its medicines, 277
- stopping rule, Premature stopping and informed consent in AMI trials, 188
- student bonding, White coat ceremonies: a second opinion, 5
- suicide, Attitudes to physician and family assisted suicide: results from a study of public attitudes in Britain, 52
- supererogation, Supererogation and altruism: a comment, 75
Supererogation and the profession of medicine, 70
- surgery, The ethics of surgery in the elderly demented patient with bowel obstruction, 105
- systematic review, The hexamethonium asthma study and the death of a normal volunteer in research, 3
Two deaths and two lessons: Is it time to review the structure and function of research ethics committees?, 1
- Szasz, Actions, causes, and psychiatry: a reply to Szasz, 120
- taxation, Tobacco, taxation, and fairness, 381
- terminal care, Factors affecting physicians' decisions to forgo life-sustaining treatments in terminal care, 109
Hospital ethics committees in Israel: structure, function and heterogeneity in the setting of statutory ethics committees, 177
- terminal sedation, Neuromuscular blockers—a means of palliation?, 170
Response to Kuhse, 273
Response to Ronald M Perkin and David B Resnik: The agony of trying to match sanctity of life and patient-centred medical care, 270
The agony of agonal respiration: is the last gasp necessary?, 164
- thalidomide, The influence of the pharmaceutical industry on the off-label use of its medicines, 277
- theory of medicine, On the theory of individual health, 17
- tissue typing, "Saviour siblings", 289
- tobacco, Tobacco, taxation, and fairness, 381
- tolerance, Reproductive tourism as moral pluralism in motion, 337
- transition country, Rationing of expensive medical care in a transition country—nihil novum?, 308
- transplantation, Death, dying and donation: organ transplantation and the diagnosis of death, 89
- treatment of the dead, Is posthumous semen retrieval ethically permissible?, 299
- trust, Is there a moral duty for doctors to trust patients?, 77
- Ulysses contracts, The validity of contracts to dispose of frozen embryos, 295
- welfare rights, A defence of the potential future of value theory, 198
- white coat ceremony, White coat ceremonies: a second opinion, 5
- withdrawing, Factors affecting physicians' decisions to forgo life-sustaining treatments in terminal care, 109
- withholding life prolonging treatment, Withholding life prolonging treatment, and self deception, 347
Factors affecting physicians' decisions to forgo life-sustaining treatments in terminal care, 109
- wrongness of killing, Present self-represented futures of value are a reason for the wrongness of killing, 196